

athena parker & drew turner

June 28, 2008

Photographed by David Wright

Photographed by David Wright

Wedding Planner • Elegant Weddings by Angela • Caterer SoBro Catering • Florist Eye Design
• Cake Maples Wedding Cakes • Invitations Buchanan Ink • Calligrapher Val Cole • Bridal Shop Low's Arkansas • Ceremony Scarritt Bennett • Reception Country Music Hall of Fame •
Transportation Matchless Limousine • Make up Kristina Arlund with MAC

Q: What was the most important thing to you about your wedding?

The ceremony. We wrote the entire thing ourselves and it was perfect for our union. We were so thrilled we were able to impart so much of ourselves in the biggest day of our lives!

Q: How did you choose your colors?

I was looking through BBJ Linen's online catalog and found the Parisian Stripe linen and knew that I had to have that at the wedding. We picked matching linens from its pattern and it all went from there.

Q: What traditions did you want in your wedding?

Instead of using a traditional guest book registry, I asked my grandmother if she would embroider a tapestry that guests could sign at the wedding and then we could hang it in our house as a wall hanging. It is made from fabrics in the scheme of our wedding colors and it is absolutely remarkable.

Q: Where are you going on your honeymoon?

Lake Como, Italy

Q: What was your favorite part about planning your wedding?

How easy it was! Everyone kept asking me if I was stressed, if it was crazy trying to plan a wedding in Nashville when I was so busy in Memphis, but it was so smooth. I know I owe all of that to Angela—she really took all of my ideas and made them come to life through the vendors. All my mom and I had to do was say yes or no!

Q: What was your something blue?

Panties from Victoria Secret- light blue with dark blue polka dots

